Public Update on COVID-19

ᑕᑦᑕᑦᑎᑦᑎᑦ ᑎᑦᑎᑦᑎᑦ ᑎᑦᑎᑦᑎᑦ ᑎᑦᑎᑦᑎᑦ

Therefore, for now, the Areas Representing a Risk are:

- Anywhere outside Eeyou Istchee, Nunavik and Region 10
- Any mine site
- Any forestry camp
- Any Hydro-Quebec site

Cree School Board
Commission scolaire crie

Travelling to these areas will require self-isolation.

It is extremely important to practice physical distancing and precautionary measures. Everyone must do what they can to protect fellow community members. Please also note that your community may have a more narrowly defined area where it is considered safe to travel and it is very important to remain informed of your local self-isolation requirements.

If you feel like you may need someone to talk to during these challenging times, please contact the Cree Health Board's Psychosocial Health Line: 1-833-632-4357

Cree School Board

The Cree School Board has extended allowances for post-secondary students for the month of July. Meantime, all applications for the fall have been reviewed.

Secondary 4 and 5 students can expect to receive their official results by early July. The Cree School Board is currently evaluating its Online Learning Platform in preparation for improvement as part of future services.

As well, the Cree School Board, with support from the Cree Nation Government, has completed budgetary negotiations. Increased funding will provide much-needed resources to assist in improving and adapting services to students in these uncertain times.

Eeyou Eenou Police Force

Intervention plan to fit the deconfinement process on Monday. The officers are being briefed on the plan. The Corps is at full force, one civilian is being tested as a precautionary measure. Officers are taking leave and resting following a strict protocol.

INSPQ are being enforced to ensure procedures and facilities are maintained to prevent COVID-19. It is part of regular internal discussions.

The EEPF has carried out 43 non-COVID related interventions, 13 of which for Highway Safety Code infractions. Although in a pandemic, the EEPF continues to serve and protect the communities with emergencies and assistance required by members.
